HON. A. K. McCLURE, Philadelphia, Solicitor.

The Chinese Government having (through the Hon. Anson Burlingame) conceded to this Company the privilege of connecting the great seaports of the Empire by submarine electric telegraph cable, we propose commencing operations in China, and laying down a line of nine hundred miles at once, between the following ports, viz:

	Population.
Canton	1,000,000
Macoa	60,000
Hong-Kong	250,000
Swatow	200,000
Amoy	250,000
Foo-Chow	1,250,000
Wan-Chu	300,000
Ningpo	400,000
Hang Cheau	1,200,000
Shanghai	1,000,000
Total	5,910,000

These ports have a foreign commerce of $900,000,000, and an enormous domestic trade, besides which we have the immense internal commerce of the Empire, radiating from these points, through its canals and navigable rivers.

The cable being laid, this company proposes erecting land lines, and establishing a speedy and trustworthy means of communication, which must command there, as everywhere else, the communications of the Goverumont, of business, and of social life especially in China. She has no postal system, and her only means now of communuicating information is by couriers on land, and by steamers on water.

The Western World knows that China is a very large country, in the main densely peopled; but few yet realize that she contains more than a third of the human race. The latest returns made to her central authorities for taxing purposes by the local magistrate make her population Four hundred and Fourteen millions, and this is more likely to be under than over the actual aggregate. Nearly all of these, who are over ten years old, not only can but do read and write. Her civilization is peculiar, but her literature is as extensive as that of Europe. China is a land of teachers and traders; and the latter are exceedingly quick to avail themselves of every proffered facility for procuring early information. It is observed in California that the Chinese make great use of the telegraph, though it there transmits messages in English alone. To-day great numbers of fleet steamers are owned by Chinese merchants, and used by them exclusively for the transmission of early intelligence. If the telegraph we propose connecting all their great seaports, were now in existence, it is believed that its business would pay the cost within the first two years of its successful operation, and would steadily increase thereafter

No enterprise commends itself as in a greater degree renumerative to capitalists, and to our whole people. It is of vast national importance commercially, politically and evangelically.

☞ The stock of this Company has been unqualifiedly recommended to capitalists and business men, as a desirable investment by editorial articles in the New York Herald, Tribune, World, Times, Post, Express, Independent, and in the Philadelphia North American, Press, Ledger, Inquirer, Age, Bulletin and Telegraph.

Shares of this company, to a limited number, may be obtained at $50 each, $10 payable down, $15 on the 1st of November, and $25 payable in monthly instalments of $2.50 each, commencing December 1, 1868, on application to

DEMOCRATIC PLATFORM.

1. That the federal government is limited in power to the grants contained in the Federal Constitution; that the exercise of doubtful constitutional powers is dangerous to the stability of the government and the safety of the people, and the democratic party will never consent that the State of Pennsylvania shall surrender her great right of local self-government.

2. That the attempted ratification of the proposed fifteenth amendment to the Federal Constitution by the radical members of the last legislature, and their refusal to submit the same to a vote of the people, was a deliberate breach of their official duty and an outrage upon every citizen of the State, and the resolution making such ratification should be promptly repealed and the amendment submitted to the people at the polls for acceptance or rejection.

3. That the Democratic party of Pennsylvania is opposed to conferring upon the negro the right to vote, and we do emphatically deny that there is any right or power in Congress or elsewhere to impose negro suffrage upon the people of this State in opposition to their will.

4. That reform in the administration of the federal and State governments, and in the management of their financial affairs is imperatively demanded.

5. That the movements now being made for the amelioration of the condition of the laboring man has our most cordial co-operation.

6. That the legislation of the late republican Congress "outside of the Constitution," the disregard of the majority therein of the will of the people and sanctity of the ballot box, in the exclusion from their seats in Congress of representatives clearly elected, the establishment of military governments in States in the Union and the overthrow of all civil governments therein, are acts of tyranny and usurpation that tend directly to the destruction of all republican government and the creation of the worst forms of despotism.

7. That our soldiers and sailors, who carried the flag of our country to victory must be gratefully remembered, and all the guaranties given in their favor must be faithfully carried into execution.

8. Equal rights and protection for naturalized and native-born citizens at home and abroad; the assertion of American nationality which shall command the respect of foreign powers and furnish an example an encouragement to people struggling for national integrity, constitutional liberty and individual rights.

9. That the present internal revenue and taxing system of the general government is grossly unjust, and means ought at once to be adopted to cause a modification thereof.

The report was acccepted and unanimously adopted.

JUSTICE in Texas is still very rapid, if not always certain. A black mare was stolen from a liverv stable, and, after search, was heard from in a distant town. The proprietors sent a messenger after her, and a day or two afterwards received a dispatch as follows: "Your mare is here; I will bring her; thief hung."

A VERDANT Cape Codder, upon seeing a locomotive for the first time, threw up his hands exclaiming, "By thunner, what a darned great stove!"

THE DRAFT.

The following was written during the war, and was intended as a burlesque on the manner of doing business during that troublous time by some of the "Boards of Enrollment," which proved themselves absurd and farcical in the extreme. Their "examinations" were neither scientific nor dignified, nor even conducted in reference to the merits or demerits of the case, but according to whim or fancy, and, in many instances, in a spirit of favoritism. Men were sent into the service who were totally unfit, and according to the surgeon's examinations afflicted with all the diseases that flesh is heir to and were only a charge to the government, whilst on the other hand, some who would have made good soldiers were allowed to go scot free on the most trivial pleas.

HOW TO LENGTHEN LIFE.

1. Cultivate an equable temper; many a man has fallen dead in a fit of passion.

2. Eat regularly and not over three times a day, and nothing between meals.

3. Go to bed at regular hours. Get up as soon as you wake yourself, and do not sleep in the day time, at least not longer than ten minutes before noon.

4. Work always by the day, and not by the job.

5. Stop working before you are very much tired out—before you are "fagged out."

6. Cultivate a generous and accommodating temper.

7. Never cross a bridge before you come to it; this will save half the troubles of life.

8. Never eat when you are not hungry, or drink when you are not thirsty.

9. Let your appetite always come uninvited.

10. Cool off in a place greatly warmer than the one in which you have been exercising; this simple rule would prevent incurable sickness, and save millions of lives every year.

11. Never resist a call of nature for a single moment.

12. Never allow yourself to be chilled "through and through;" it is this which destroys so many every year, in a few days sickness from pneumonia, called, by some, lung fever or inflamation of the lungs.

13 Whosoever drinks no liquids at meals will add years of pleasurable existence to his life. Of cold or warm drinks the former are the most pernicious: drinks at meals induce persons to eat more than they otherwise would, as any one can verify by experiment; and it is excess in eating which devastates the land with sickness, suffering and death.

14. After fifty years of age, if not a day laborer, and sedentary person after forty, should eat but twice a day, 9 in the morning and four in the afternoon; persons can soon accustom themselves to a seven-hour interval between eating, thus giving the stomach rest: every organ without adequate rest will "give out permanently."—Hall's Journal of Health.

FIERCE FIGHT: TWO WOMEN ENGAGE IN A BLOODY COMBAT IN TENNESSEE: ONE OF THEM KILLED.

Within seven miles of Dresden, in Weakly county, Tenn., lives an extensive planter named Gobert. He has one son, a lad of about twenty, with long flaxen hair and cowhide boots. Gobert employs several colored people to work his land. Among those employed were two yellowish girls, of rather prepossessing appearance.—Young Gobert became familiar with both, to whom he gave slight tokens of his peculiar regard from time to time, but managed to keep each other in the dark with regard to his intercourse with the other until last week.

An accident led to the full knowledge of his faithlessness, and both girls became violently enraged, not so much, however, against the betrayer as against each other. At first they had a slight fight; some hair was torn up by the roots, and cuts about the face given on both sides, but the young gallant parted them before any serious damage was done. The fire of jealousy, however raged in the bosoms of the two girls to such an extent that they silently and mutually resolved each to be the death of the other. On Friday, when the family had gone to Dresden to do business, the girls met in the yard, one an outdoor servant and one an indoor servant. Both were armed with heavy sticks. The battle began at once. According to the testimony of the surviving lady, the contest lasted fifteen minutes, during which they frequently clinched, knocked each other down, rolled over, bit and scratched terrifically. Sometimes the sticks would be dropped for fisticuffing, and presently resumed again. The survivor, Jane, has an arm broken, an ear bit off, half her hair gone, and four or five contusions about the head and shoulders, and face scratched all over. The other girl, Kate, up to the moment of receiving the fatal stroke, appeared to have the best of the fight, as she bears no evidence of rough handling, save a blackened eye and the loss of two front teeth, which were rammed down her throat by the point of the enemy's stick. Immediately that Jane's arm was broken at the elbow, she grasped her stick in the left hand, and, getting a clear and open stroke swung her weapon round, and came home on Kate's neck with such force that the girl dropped down, and never uttered a cry nor moved a limb—her neck was broken. Jane took to flight at once, and keeping in the woods as much as possible, did not stop until she fell exhausted, about seven miles from the scene of conflict, near Westley's farm house, where she was picked up by a colored employee of the latter establishment. When the family came home they found Kate cold and stiff in the yard where the fight took place, with every indication of a fearful battle having been fought. The Amazonian duelist was brought to Dresden, where she confessed the whole thing. Young Gobert has been put under arrest. The girl is in charge of a physician, who says that her injuries may prove fatal.—Nashville Press.

A ROMANTIC LOVE STORY.

The Count de St. Croix, belongIng to one of the noblest families in France, became engaged after a long courtship to a lady his equal in position and fortune, and famous for her beauty. Shortly after the happy day was appointed which was to render two loving hearts one, the Count was ordered immediately to the siege of Sebastopol; so he girded on his sabre, and at the head of his regiment marched to the battle-field. During the Count's absence it happened that his beautiful affianced had the small-pox; afer hovering between life and death she recovered, but found her beauty hopeles ly lost. The disease had assumed in her case the most virulent character, and left her not only disfigured but seamed and scarred to such an extent that she became hideous to herself, and resolved to pass the remainder of her days in the strictest seclusion.

A year passed away, when one day the Count, immediately upon his return to France, accompanied by his valet, presented himself at the residence of his betrothed, and solicited an interview. This was refused. He, however, with the persistence of a lover, pressed his suit, and finally the lady made her appearance, closely muffled in a veil. At the sound of her voice the Count rushed forward to embrace her, but stepping aside she then told him the story of her sorrow, and burst into tears. A heavenly smile broke over the Count's handsome features, as raising his hand above he exclaimed: "It is God's work! I am blind!"

It was even so. When gallantly leading his regiment to attack, a cannon ball passed so closely to his eyes that, while it left their expression unchanged, and his countenance unmarked, it robbed him forever of sight. It is almost unnecessary to add that their marriage was shortly after solemnized.

It is said that, at this day, may often be seen at the Emperor's receptions an officer leaning upon the arm of a lady closely veiled, and they seem to be attracted to the spot by their love of music.

A few evenings since a widow, who was known by the entire congregation to be greatly in want of a husband, was praying with great fervency. "Oh, Lord, thou knowest what is the desire of my heart," she exclaimed. "A m-a-n," responded a brother, in a very broad accent. It was wicked, but we are sure several grave members smiled on the occasion.

What female should a shoemaker always keep out of his establishment? Miss Fit.

THE DRUNKARD'S CASE.

Some months ago, says an exchange, a gentleman advertised that he had discovered a sure specific for the cure of drunkenness. He would not divulge the secret of what compounds he used, but furnished the medicine at so much per bottle. He did not have so many applicants for his cure as he expected, considering the extent of the disease. In fact the more malignant cases did not seem anxious for relief. They rather enjoy the malady. A few, however, placed themselves under treatment, and some were cured—whether by taking the medicine or by not taking strong drinks we are not prepared to say. One of the cured ones had faith in the medicine, rigidly carried out the directions of the doctor, and now has not the least taste for intoxicating drinks; whereas, one year ago he was an inebriate, and could not get along with less than a pint to a quart of whisky per day.

He said that, at some trouble and expense, he had procured the receipt for the preparation of the medicine, which he had published for the benefit of suffering humanity. It is as follows: Sulphate of iron, five grains; peppermint water, eleven drachms; spirit of nutmeg, one drachm, twice a day. This preparation acts as a tonic and a stimlent, and so partially supplies the place of the accustomed liqour, and prevents that absolute physical prostration that follows the sudden breaking off from the use of stimulating drinks. It is to be taken in quantities equal to an ordinary dram and as often as the desire for a dram returns. Any druggest can prepare the prescription. It is said this preparation will soon remove all longing for intoxicating drinks. Try it, you who honestly wish to break away from a habit which is hurrying you to a drunkard's grave.

JUST THE SAME.—Some years ago (so the story goes), a farmer living not a thousand miles from New York, gave one of his sons some money, and told him to go out West and remain two years; at the end of which time, if he would return to a specified place, one of his brothers would meet him. The young man went, and returned and met his brother according to appointment, although no communication had taken place between them during the time. While going homeward together, the wanderer, after relating some of his adventures, inquired whether anything had happened since he had left home.

"No, not a single thing," replied the other, "everything is just the same as when you left, except the old crow died."

"Indeed," said the wanderer, "and is the old crow dead? What killed him?"

"Why he ate too much meat when the matched horses died."

"Good gracious! are the matched horses dead? What killed them?"

"Well you see when the house and barn was burned, they overdid themselves in hauling water."

"Good gracious! are the house and barn burned down? How did it happen?"

"Well, you see, when daddy died, they were carrying lights about, and were careless."

"Good gracious! and is daddy dead?

"What was the matter with him?"

"Well, you see, when Sal ran away and got married against daddy's wishes, he just pined away and died."

"Good gracious! so nothing has happened since I've been away?"

"No, everything is just the same."

HOW SHE KNEW.—Two young misses discussing the qualities of some young gentleman were overheard to say:

"Well, I like Charley, but he is a little girlish; he hasn't got the least bit of a beard."

"I say Charley has got a beard, but he shaves it off."

"No, he hasn't either, any more than I have."

"I say he has, too, and I know it, for it pricked my cheek."

That's how she knew.

"How many children have you?" asked a gentleman of one of his laborers, looking around in surprise upon the family.

"Better than a dozen, sir."

"I only make out eleven," said the gentleman.

"Faith, an' isn't that better than a dozen, sir, when one has to feed 'em?"

'SISTER,' said one of the brethern at a love feast, are you happy?' 'Yes, deacon, I feel as though I was in Beelzebub's bosom!' 'Not in Beelzebub's bosom!' Well, some of the patriarchs, I don't care which.'

A boozy fellow was observed the other day, driving a "porker," holding on to his tail, and when asked what he was doing, replied that he was 'Studying gehog-raphy."

A man once went to an eccentric lawyer to be qualified for some petty office. The lawyer said to him, "Hold up your hand. I'll swear you, but all creation couldn't qualify you."

An itinerant, preaching on the "Depravity of the Age," said that the little children who could neither speak nor walk, were to be seen running about the streets cursing and swearing.

JOSH BILLINGS says; "When a young man ain't good for nothing else I like tew see him have a gold headed cane. If he can't buy a cane, let him part his hair in the middle."

The lady who took everybody's eye must have a lot of 'em.

The man who was filled with emotion hasn't room for a dinner.

FOR THE CAMPAIGN!

RALLY IN YOUR MIGHT!

Read, Think and Act!

Our appeal is to the intelligent, the candid and the independent. We ask only that people shall understand the issues before them, and that, understanding them, they reflect upon their duty in the premises and then discharge what they believe to be that duty when they come to cast their ballots. In order that the questions to be voted upon at the coming election, may be fairly and fully presented to the public, the BEDFORD GAZETTE will be furnished for the campaign, at the following low rates:

One copy	$0.50
Three copies	1.20
Five copies	1.75
Ten copies	3.00
Twenty copies	5.00

In all cases the cash must accompany the order. We respectfully ask the active men of our party to get up clubs for the campaign at every post-office in the county. In no other way can the good cause be more effectively supported than by the circulation of Democratic newspapers. It ought to be an easy matter to raise a club of twenty at any post office. Address MEYERS & MENGEL, Bedford, Pa.

GEARY'S PLATFORM.

Resolved, That we wholly approve the principles and policy of the administration of General Grant, and we heartily endorse every sentiment contained in his inaugural address, and especially do hereby ratify and approve the late amendment to the Constitution of the United States proposed by Congress, known as the Fifteenth Amendment.—Radical Platform adopted at Philadelphia, June 24, 1869.—See Bedford Inquirer of July 2.

GEARY AND THE 15th AMENDMENT.

When Congress passed the XVth Amendment, Gov. Geary did not wait a single day to examine the measure, but in hot haste transmitted it to the legislature, with a message recommending (to use his own language) "its prompt ratification."

There are many persons calling themselves "Republicans" who declare they will not support for re-election those members of the legislature, who voted for the ratification of the Amendment. In this county hundreds have announced their opposition to Mr. Longenecker, on this account. But Mr. L. and the rest of the Radicals in the legislature only carried out the recommendation of Gov. Geary, in voting for the ratification of the Amendment.

It follows, therefore, that those "Republicans" who cannot support Longenecker, because of his vote for the XVth Amendment, cannot consistently support Geary. The defeat of Longenecker and the election of Geary, would be like hanging the accessory to a murder while rewarding the principal. These two candidates are in the same boat and should be sunk together, only that Geary is the pilot and Longenecker only a willing passenger, and a larger stone should be tied around the neck of the former than that which is to produce the political death of the latter.

Besides, the Radical State Convention adopted a resolution expressly endorsing the XVth Amendment. Geary accepted the nomination on this platform, and every vote given for him will be claimed by the advocates of the Amendment as approving its ratification. Thousands of "Republicans," throughout the State, petitioned the legislature, last winter, to reject the Amendment, or postpone action on it until the people could be heard in the election of a new legislature, but their prayer was scoffed at and despised.—Geary had recommended the "prompt ratification" of the Amendment, and the Radical legislature, while turning a dull and senseless ear to the petitions of the people, slavishly and blindly obeyed the dictation of the faithless Executive. If there be any honor, or truth, or consistency among "Republicans," they cannot vote for the re-election of Geary.

KENTUCKY O. K!

"Old Kentuck" held an election on Monday, and the result is a Democratic victory by 50,000 majority! Let us have Peace!

THE Democratic State Committee meets at Altoona, on Tuesday, August 10th.

THE XVth Amendment, the principal plank in Geary's platform, does not enlarge, but contracts, popular rights. Under the Constitution as it now is, and as it came from the hands of Washington, Hamilton, Franklin and Madison, the people of the States enjoy the privilege of deciding who shall and who shall not be voters. The Fifteenth Amendment proposes to take from the people this privilege and to confer on Congress the power to pass all laws necessary to enforce the theft. This is but a verification of the adage that "power is always stealing from the many to the few." When the people give up the right to control and regulate the elective franchise for themselves, they yield the only safeguard of republican institutions. Imperialism is at the bottom of the Fifteenth Amendment.

IT IS admitted by the Radical journals that the legislatures of the last three years have been the most corrupt that ever assembled at Harrisburg. The reason for this is to be found in the fact that there was no check upon them in the Executive. Geary was hand-in-glove and cheek-by-jowl with the "roosters" and "pinchers" of the legislative department. He belongs to the "rings" that infest the capital, and his signature graces every little bill that pays a "dividend" to these legislative brokers. Is such a man to be continued at the head of our state government three years longer? Let honest and well-meaning men, of both parties, answer.

THE following we clip from the Frederick Republican, edited by Col. G. W. Z. Black, formerly of this county, and a radical of the straitest sect. Mr. Black is evidently disgusted with the radical journals of his native state in their efforts to say something against Asa. Packer. Especially do we commend its perusal to the "high-toned" editor of the Inquirer:

We do not agree with the large number of Republican journals which unite in calling Asa Packer, the Democratic candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania, "anti-deluvian," "old fogy," &c. Any man who can, solely through his own exertions, make a fortune of twenty millions of dollars, is pretty sure to be a clear-headed, wide-awake man. We admire energy and pluck, and do not like to see it decried simply because the possessor is not a Republican.

THE Bedford Inquirer, during the war, borrowed from some fellow Radical "slang-whanger," the epithet "Copperhead," which it sometimes abbreviates into "Cop.," and which it considers so exceedingly smart that not a single issue appears without being liberally garnished with it. Other Radical papers have long since grown tired of this infamous term, and not caring to be classed with blackguards, have abandoned its use altogether. But to the Inquirer it stands in the stead of facts, logic and principle. If that word were to be expunged from Lutz's vocabulary, his paper would be neutral in politics, and, perhaps, in religion.

REGISTER!

Democrats, examine the lists of voters put up by the registry, and see that your names and those of your Democratic neighbors are on them. Go to the Assessor in person and see that he puts your name on his list in your presence. If he be a Radical, it will be well for you to take a witness along. The revision of the registration commenced on Monday last.

NATURALIZATION PAPERS.

Democrats of the several districts should see to it that all persons entitled to naturalization obtain their papers at next September court. Persons who served in the army one year and were honorably discharged are entitled to papers. Two witnesses are always necessary in cases of application for last papers. Time of residence and good character must be proved.

THE Bloody Run Press advises its party to "lie low" until within a few days of the election, and to spring upon us like the tiger from his lair. It is opposed to mass meetings and a long campaign; it wants the contest to be "short, sharp and decisive." The Democrats will have something to say to this. They will be on the look-out for the Radical animal no matter how low it may lie.

DEMOCRATS will remember that their political opponents are only awaiting an opportunity to strike. Be on your guard. You can expect no favors from the enemy. Accordingly as you act manfully and honorably in the campaign, shall you be esteemed by your party friends in the future. The Democracy have determined that every man on their ticket, must and shall be elected. Let every Democrat so act that he may share in our triumph.

WM. MUTCHLER, Esq., of Easton, has been appointed Chairman of the Democratic State Committee, vice W. A. Galbraith, declined. Col. Mutchler is a man of ability and will organize the Democracy for victory.

LETTERS OF ACCEPTANCE OF HON. ASA PACKER AND HON. CYRUS L. PERSHING.

The following is the letter of Judge Packer accepting the Democratic nomination for Governor:

To the Hon. C. R. Buckalew, Lewis C. Cassidy and R. E. Monaghan, Esqs., Committee:—GENTLEMEN:—At the first convenient moment I reply to your communication informing me of my nomination by the Democratic State Convention of the 14th instant, for the office of Governor of Pennsylvania. I desire to make due acknowledgment for this high evidence of esteem and friendship of my fellow-citizens, and to say that I accept the nomination tendered me, having at the solicitation of my friends, though with unfeigned reluctance, been induced to permit the use of my name for the nomination. My acceptance becomes a matter of course, if not duty, but I announce it with a deep sense of the responsibility assumed. My reliance in accepting the position of candidate and agreeing to perform the executive service for the people, is not alone upon my own strength or good intentions, but merely upon popular indulgence and generous support, and upon that superintending Providence which can bless the labors of public men. If I shall be placed by the votes of the people in the gubernatorial chair, I shall endeavor to meet the expectations of my friends and all who have at heart the true interests of our great Commonwealth. To this end I shall labor to secure those objects in which we feel a common interest and concern, among which are the preservation of the State credit, the reduction of the expenses of the State government to their lowest practical point, thereby lessening the burdens and taxation of the people; the encouragement of a liberal system of improvement for intercourse and trade, in order that production may be increased, labor more amply rewarded and general prosperity secured, the just execution of the laws involving a cautious and sparing use of power in the pardon of offenders, so that good faith shall be kept among the people and crime be suppressed; promotion of the education of our youth by a general system of organized schools and by special institutions of learning, so that knowledge and virtue shall become more and more solid foundations of our free political system; and lastly, the restoration of purity and character to our government by the putting down or preventing of special and corrupt legislation and of all improper uses or management of public funds. To these general objects, however, should be added a careful attention by the government to the interests of labor. Having earned my bread by the labor of my hands during the many, and I may add, the happiest years of my life, and owning whatever I possess, under the providence of God, to patient and honest toil, I can never be unmindful of the interests of those with whom my entire life has been associated. Inasmuch as my pursuits and training have not qualified me for speech-making, or for solicitation of votes, it will not be expected that I shall understand the performance of active duties in the canvass about to begin. But my life, conduct and character are before my fellow-citizens for their examination, and they will afford them better means of judging of my fitness as a candidate for popular support than anything I could now say. I am, gentlemen, very respectfully yours, ASA PACKER.

The following is Judge Pershing's letter of acceptance:

PHILADELPHIA, July 22.—To Hon. Charles R. Buckalew, Lewis C. Cassidy and R. E. Monaghan, Esqs., Committee:—GENTLEMEN:—Your note of the 21st inst. has been received, informing me of my nomination as democratic candidate for Judge of the Supreme Court by the State Convention. This distinguished honor is more valued as it has been conferred without solicitation. I accept the nomination, and should the action of the Convention be ratified by the people, I shall endeavor to discharge the responsible duties of the position with impartiality and fidelity. CYRUS L. PERSHING.

BEDFORD SPRINGS.—A writer from Bedford Springs to the Morning Patriot talks in the following strain of matters and things as they appear on the route to and about our watering place.

I arrived here on Saturday night last after a pleasant ride over the Pennsylvania Central and Huntingdon and Broad Top railroads, supplemented by a healthful trot in one of Barclay & Shoemaker's easy and cosy coaches from Mt Dallas to this place. It was one of the pleasantest of quiet afternoons, on which I passed up the sylvan valley af the Juniata, that seemed to be asleep in the embrace of the rugged mountains. It was Saturday, and even the gentle noise of rural industry were hushed. The empty wain, with wheels well "scorched," stood in the stubble on the hill-side, whilst here and there a shock of wheat, leaning towards a gradual fall, dotted the surface of the harvest field growing green again in the swift growth of springing clover. "The hills seemed farther and the streams sang low," the scene recalling to the mind Buchanan Read's pretty thought,

"The russet year inhaled the dreamy air,
Like some tanned reaper in his hour of ease,
When all the fields are lying brown and bare."

As we thundered along on the H. & B. T. R. R., there was just light enough to enable one to obtain a thrilling view of the trestle work below Saxton, and twilight fell gently upon us as we sat down to a delicious supper of ham and eggs and coffee at the "Waverly House," Saxton, after which the trip was speedily resumed. A few minutes' ride brought us to Riddlesburg, where is located the newly erected and very extensive furnace of the Kemble Coal and Iron Company. It was quite dark when we arrived at this point, but the scene presented by the long row of coke ovens in full blast, illuminating stream and hill-side, was truly sublime. It seemed as if the genius Broad Top looked forth from the Riddlesburg gorge, with many fiery gleaming eyes, and, though silent as the sphynx, prophesied in its muteness the future wealth and glory of the region. But I forget that I am trying to write a letter, having been betrayed by the beauties of the scenery along the route, into a poor attempt to sketch a landscape. Revenons a nos moutons.—And this last remark reminds me that we are at Bedford Springs, for here we ever "return to our mutton," which is always fresh and tender.

The number of visitors at Bedford this season is quite as large as at former ones, but I do not find so many distinguished personages here as at other times. The L. L. D's and the N. P's (noted politicians) do not abound as formerly. The Springs are under the superintendence of J. J. Anderson, Esq., one of the proprietors, with Col. A. G. Allen as manager and Major A. J. Sansom as clerk. The guests are comfortably lodged, the tables are well supplied, and the grounds were never in better condition.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

Schenck's Pulmonic Syrup,

Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills, will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint, and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver, and put it to work: then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens in the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivalled success in the treatment of pulmonary consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe, a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall-bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care), that will unlock the gall-bladder and starts the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the Alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, looking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills, or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has Consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation, and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood: then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

When there is no lung disease, and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all billious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparations with the same remarkable success. Full directions accompanying each, make it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless the patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond Street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover Street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1.50 per bottle, or $7.50 a half-dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists.

Reader, let us whisper something in your ear, and that is, that H. F. Irvine sells the best makes of boots and shoes to be found anywhere, and always has on hand a large and varied stock to select from.

NEW RESTAURANT.—Mr. Burton Edsall will open, on Friday of this week, a first class restaurant on the first, or basement floor of the GAZETTE building. Barty has been fortunate in securing this elegant location. Give him a call.

HORSE STOLEN.—A valuable horse was taken from Mr. John Imler, near St. Clairsville, on last Thursday night. Mr. George Beegle, of Union, tracked a man to Cambria county, where he captured him with the horse, brought him to Bedford and had the fellow lodged in jail.

Communion Service will be held in the Reformed Church, of this place, on Sunday next—preparatory service on Saturday previous—commencing at half-past ten o'clock, A. M. The Rev. Dr. Apple, of Mercersburg College, will preach on both occasions. The public are invited to attend.

BROKE JAIL AGAIN.—We learn that the cattle thief who broke jail here a few weeks ago, and who was afterwards captured at Cumberland and lodged in jail at that place, has again managed to make good his escape from that institution, taking with him two other prisoners.

MASQUERADE BALL.—A grand fancy and masquerade ball was had at the Springs, one night last week. We were not "there to see," but were told that the scene presented was one of indescribable grandure and magnificence. The ladies in particular excelled in their gorgeous and fantastic attire.—The old and the young, the grave and the gay, participated in the festive scene.

A friend in the northern part of the county sends us a list of 30 campaign subscribers, accompanied with the "needful." This is a move in the right direction, and we hope to hear from other districts on this subject. Circulate the documents, friends, so that the people may become enlightened on the issues of the day.

BRIDGE COMPLETED.—One of the finest bridges in this county has just been erected on the site of the old one known as the "Smith bridge," in Bedford township. It is 125 feet long, covered, and built of the best material, and after the most approved modern style. The builder was Mr. Jacob Fries, of Claysburg, Pa., who is a mechanic of more than ordinary skill in bridge building.

Especial attention is called to the advertisement of that celebrated Specialist, Q. VAN HUMMEL., M. D., of New York City, who treats throat and lung diseases by inhalation—the only acknowledged cure for Consumption. He uses Abbot's Inhaling Fluid, a remedy not known to the profession. Thousands have been snatched from the jaws of death by this wonderful remedy, and those afflicted should not hesitate to immediately place themselves under the Doctor's care.

A MODEL DRUG STORE.—Dr. F. M. Marbourg, of Shellsburg, has just fixed up and filled with the purest and best articles the markets affords, a drug store, which in point of enterprise, is far ahead of anything in that part of the county. It is in every respect a model establishment, and we hope that the proprietor of this new enterprise will recieve the patronage which he deserves. The Doctor has met with great success in his practice, and stands at the head of his profession in that section of our county.

JUSTICE TEMPERED WITH MERCY.—Benedict Miller, a Geman "tramp," picked up a double-barrel gun which had been placed against a tree near the road, in Snake Spring, by one of our modern Nimrods. Miller—as he afterwards alleged before the Justice—saw no owner, and as no one claimed the gun as he marched along with it, he imagined his right to the same was superior to that of any one else—a sort of ownership acquired by the right of discovery. But the wayfaring Teuton was speedily brought to grief. At the Forks he was met by a hunter who knew the gun and who was aware that it had been taken at the place aforesaid. A warrant was issued, and the German with his gun was brought to face stern justice. His story before the magistrate was so simple, that the sympathy of the crowd was almost unanimously elicited in his favor. The prosecutor, too, was anxious for his release, and offered to pay all costs. Justice yielded to mercy, and Miller, after being admonished to do so no more, was set at liberty, for which act of magnanimity he seemed truly grateful.

AFRICAN PARADE.—On Thursday night last, our town was the scene of a torch-light parade on the part of the "gentlemen of color" residing in this neighborhood, reinforced by the waiters at ahe Springs. We believe there was no other purpose in the affair than the amusement of those engaged in it. There was a number of torches, Chinese lanterns and transparencies and a large American flag was carried in front of the procession, which was preceded by drum and fife. The caps and hats of the darkies were of the most fantastic sort, some of them wearing the old-fashioned chapeau bras, made of paper, giving them the appearance of so many brigadier generals on dress parade. After marching through the streets, the procession halted in front of the residence of Mrs. Anderson, on Pitt street, when Gen. Ben. Taylor, head waiter at the Springs, in a short speech, expressed his gratitude for the kind treatment he had always received from the proprietors of the Springs. &c, &c. Neither of the Messrs. Anderson being at home, Dr. C. N. Hickok, at the request of the ladies of the house, thanked Gen. Taylor and his "compatriots" for their polite demonstration. The procession was orderly, no disturbance whatever occurring. We were glad to notice that no political mottos were displayed on the banners. We shall always have a kind word to say for our African population so long as their behavior is as good as on Thursday night last.

HORSE AND BUGGY THIEVES CAPTURED.—On last Wednesday afternoon two rough looking characters drove into town with horse and buggy, and put up at the Mengel House. The horse was much jaded and numerous were the "welts" raised on his back and sides. The heroes of this article offered the whole rig for sale at a moderate price, and this and other circumstances led Mr. J. A. Cessna, who keeps the Mengel House livery, to suspect that all was not right. Accordingly he telegraphed to several places, but received nothing to warrant the arrest of the supposed thieves. The strangers indulged freely in benzine and felt so good over their lucky adventure thus far, that a trip to the Springs was projected and carried out. While they were testing the healing virtues of our mineral waters, the officers of an outraged law were close upon their heels, for deputy constable Floto, of Berlin, had traced these scamps to this place, and was armed with a warrant to arrest them for stealing, the night before, a horse and buggy, two sets of harness and a lot of clothing, near Meyer's Mills. Mr. Cessna proceeded to the Springs at once, bought the rig for $215, and brought the fellows to town to give them their money, but forgot to mention to the delighted boys that a Justice had his office in the bank. Much pleased that they had so easily disposed of their stolen goods, they drove up to the bank and went in, but instead of receiving the much longed for greenbacks they were presented with a warrant for their arrest. The owners of the goods had arrived, too, and identified the property. Justice Nicodemus committed the purlioners to jail and the next morning they were taken to Somerset for trial. The names they gave were no doubt manufactured for the occasion, and it is not worth while to give them here.

Nothing can be well done that is done in a hurry, does not apply to catching fleas.

A SENSATION.—Saint Clair township is just now being treated to a first class sensation. Within her borders and close to the Bedford township line, in an old two story log house, is a "spook," a hobgoblin, a "what is it." Superstitious people, as well as those who believe in nothing that is not tangible—things that cannot be grasped, or that stand out in bold relief like a bank barn or a mighty oak—flock thither every day to see the image of a man, a woman or a child, and sometimes all three, at one peep. Hundreds have already been there to see what could be seen, and hundreds more will go there unless the mysterious faces are positively stared out of countenance.

It is a wonderful thing, these mythical faces peeping through the window panes. But all are not blessed with a sight of the mysterious beings. Out of a hundred visitors, probably only about twenty are permitted to catch a glimpse of the wonder. The "spooks" are partial, it seems. Persons with eyes of a bluish tint have in no single instance beheld what others affirm so positively can plainly be seen. Whether this holds good with persons who "feel blue" we are not informed.

But, seriously, there are a great many people in this community who firmly believe that faces can be seen through a certain window in that old two story log house, that have not yet been recognized by any one who has been treated to a sight. The descriptions are of them different; and yet some there be who can give the color of the hair on the man's head, the length of his beard and the thickness of his eye brows. And a great many of these descriptions harmonize perfectly.—Some folks laugh about this affair, others take it seriously to heart and with a knowing shake of the head say, "it means something." Whether there is a deep mystery connected therewith that time only can unravel, or whether it is a first class sensational humbug, we shall see. They say—and that is certainly good authority—that it has "spooked" out in that region for a number of years.

As for ourselves we do not believe in such stuff. Our earliest impressions have been quite the reverse. But some day we will go to the haunted house, and if we are successful in making the acquaintance of the wonderful faces, our readers shall know all about it.

We forgot to state that the house is occupied by a lady and her daughter, who are perfectly unconcerned about the matter, notwithstanding the throng and excitement which has forced itself upon them in their rural retreat, and which they are almost daily called upon to witness. They ought to charge each visitor 25 cents for a peep at this first class side show.

PEOPLE AT THE POST OFFICE.—A great many "peculiar people" call at the post office, among whom may be mentioned the following: The individual who gets a letter about once in six months, but always struggles to be the first at the window; the one who regards his solitary letter as a natural curiosity, turning it over and over, viewing it critically from an up-hill and down-hill stand-point, as if in astonishment that he should get one at all; the man from the country, who inquires for all the folks at his place; the sprucecelerk, with a paste bosom-pin and short tailed coat, who gets a dozen letters for his employer, and looks as wise as though they were all intended for himself; the old buffer, who gets a letter from his married daughter in Indiana, puts on his "specs," and reads it through before leaving the rail; the indignant specimen, who wonders why the d—euce the expected letter has'nt come, and who holds an earnest colloquy with the clerk as to the probable cause of its detention; the blushing damsel who, in her eagerness, jabs the parasol in your left eye, and apologizes with a smirk and a titter; the bashful young man, with faint traces of down on his chin, who expects a letter from his sweetheart, and who retires in confusion; the be-rouged and be-flounced syprian, who smells of musk, and who inquires with a cracked voice, for Miss Viola Fitzsimmons; the big paunched man, who treads at your anguish; the seedy customer, who gets a bill for washing and tries to make you think it is a draft; these, with the booby who waits an hour to see who comes in, are the most prominent of post office nuisances.

THAT unflinching Radical paper, the Philadelphia Evening Telegraph gives John W. Geary the following complimentary notice:

The present Governor of Pennsylvania has scarcely been behind the "greatest criminal of the age" in this respect; he has used the pardoning power not for the rectifying of mistakes made by the courts, not for doing justice when the law had been too severe, but to make it a business to prey upon the community.

True, every word of it.

CHANCE FOR A RADICAL OFFICE SEEKER.—Grant has lost one of his horses. There is now a chance for some enterprising politician of the radical school to secure a good fat office. Let him present Grant with a fast horse, to take the place of the dead animal.

And when Abraham and the people beheld the wonderful cures which were produced by this drink, Abraham said "My children must not suffer: give me thy drink to drink, and I will give it a name."

And so Abraham drank, and said there was nothing like it, even in Sangamon county; that it was bitter to the lips, but good for the stomach; and because there were bitter times in fighting the masters of the plantations, it shall be forevermore called Plantation Bitters; and so it has been.

And the wonderful work which it has performed is witnessed at this day in every town parish, village and hamlet throughout all the world.

And he said, "Let it be proclaimed throughout the length and breadth of the land, from the valleys and mountain-tops, that all who suffer from fevers, dyspepsia, weakness, loss of appetite, nervous headache, and mental despondency, will find relief through the Plantation Bitters. They add tone to the stomach, and brilliancy to the mind, of which I, O people, am a living example."

MAGNOLIA WATER.—Superior to the best imported German Cologne, and sold at half the price.

Our readers have observed that we rarely praise patent medicines, and that we advertise only the best of them. But now, the remarkable recovery of Mrs. Rice of Canastota, from her distressing and almost helpless scrofulous disease, which is known throughout the community, and unquestionably the effect of Ayer's Sarsaparilla, leads us to publish without reserve the remarkable efficacy of this medicine.—We do this in the interest of the afflicted. Any remedy which can so effectually "raise from the dead," should be unverisally known; and we wish it may be universally as successful as it has been in the case of Mrs. Rice.—Daily Journal, Syracuse.

AN APPEAL.—We clip the following "touching appeal" from an English paper, and commend it to our own subscribers, who are in arrears, for their consideration:

"Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of thine hand to do it."

"We are greatly in need of money just now in order to meet our paper bills and other liabilities, and as there are thousands of dollars due the office from subscribers, we would kindly, but earnestly, ask all who are in arrears to remit immediately, if possible, a part at least of their indebtedness."

"Say not unto thy neighbor, 'Go and come again, and to-morrow I will give thee;' when thou hast it by thee."

HOW MUCH OWEST THOU?—The date opposite the name on the paper is the time to which the subscriber has paid; and means that the subscription year expired with that date (whatever the date may be), and as our terms are two dollars a year in advance, or within six months, and two dollars and fifty cents if not paid within six months, each one can thus easily determine the present condition of his account with this office. How much owest thou?"

"Woe unto him that useth his neighbor's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work."

COLBURN'S PATENT

RED JACKET AXE.

Is better than our regular shaped Axes for these reasons. First—It cuts deeper. Second—It don't stick in the Wood. Third—It does not jar the hand. Fourth—No time is wasted in taking the Axe out of the cut. Fifth—With the same labor you will do one-third more work than with regular Axes. Red paint has nothing to do with the good qualities of this Axe, for all our Axes are painted red. If your hardware store does not keep our goods, we will gladly answer inquiries or fill your orders direct, or give you the name of the nearest dealer who keeps our Axes.

DODD'S NERVINE DID IT.

NEW LONDON, CONN., April 26, 1869.

REMEMBERED FRIEND—I thought it well to wait another week before writing, to see if I continued to improve, as I have been doing for some time, under the treatment of the new medicine, and I am happy to tell you when you that I am getting better—even faster than when you were here. I commenced the use of DODD'S NERVINE without anybody advising me to it. When I began with it I could only walk from my bed to the chair. My trouble has been extreme pain in the head, and has lasted over three years. All the medicine I have heretofore taken has failed to give any relief. I am now able to go up and down stairs, and daily improving. I consider the NERVINE the best medicine I ever found, and shall continue its use, for I am confident of entire recovery. I have taken only three bottles, and would not be without it on any account.

Very truly, MRS. I. S. NUTE.

MANHOOD: HOW LOST, HOW RESTORED. Just published, a new edition of DR. CULVERWELL'S Celebrated Essay on the radical cure (without medicine) of Spermatorrhœa, or Seminal weakness, Involuntary Seminal Losses, Impotency, Mental and Phisical Incapacity, Impediments to Marriage, etc.; also, Consumption, Epilepsy, and Fits, or sexual extravagance.

☞ Price, in a sealed envelope, only 6 cents.

The celebrated author, in this admirable essay, clearly demonstrates from a thirty years' successful practice, that the alarming consequences of self-abuse may be radically cured without the dangerous use of internal medicine or the application of the knife; pointing out a mode of cure at once simple, certain, and effectual, by means of which every sufferer, no matter what his condition may be, may cure himself cheaply, privately, and radically.

☞ This Lecture should be in the hands of every youth and every man in the land.

Sent, under seal, in a plain envelope, to any address, postpaid, on receipt of six cents, or two post stamps. Also, Dr. Culverwell's "Marriage Guide," price 25 cents. Address the Publishers, CHAS. J. C. KLINE & CO., 127 Bowery, New York, Post-Office Box 4,586. july23:69y1.

LET EVERY MAN, WOMAN AND CHILD READ THIS!

Their own interests are at stake in this matter. Everybody has suffered so much from the accursed CREDIT SYSTEM, if system it can be called, that I intend to offer to everybody a panacea for the evil in the future.

On and after the first day of June, 1869. I will sell goods EXCLUSIVELY FOR CASH OR PRODUCE. No doubt some customers may be lost to me, but I flatter myself that it will be only those from whom I cannot collect prescnt accounts.

All goods will be sold at about one-half the profit now paid by consumers. The people often complain of Bedford prices being higher than elsewhere, and it is doubtless true, to some extent, for the reason that good customers have had to pay for others' goods with an additional profit on their own.

Let an intelligent community sustain me in this enterprise and they WILL SAVE FROM TEN TO FIFTEEN PER CENT. ON EVERYTHING THEY CONSUME.

may14m3 H. F. IRVINE.

NOTICE.—All accounts not settled by the first day of June, 1869, either by cash or note, will be put in the hands of an officer for collection. Friends will please take notice, and by so doing will save trouble and costs.

OUR NEW FAMILY SEWING MACHINE.

The superior merits of the "Singer" Machines over all others, for either Family use or Manufacturing purposes, are so well established and so generally admitted, that an enumeration of their relative excellences is no longer considered necessary.

OUR NEW FAMILY MACHINE,

which has been brought to perfection regardless of time, labor, or expense, is now confidently presented to the public as incomparably the Best Sewing Machine in existence. The machine in question is Simple, Compact, Durable and Beautiful. It is quiet, light running, and never before attempted upon a single Machine,—using either SILK, TWIST, LINEN OR COTTON THREAD, and sewing with equal facility the very finest and coarsest materials, and anything between the two extremes, in the most beautiful and substantial manner. Its attachments for Hemming, Braiding, Cording, Tucking, Quilting, Felling, Trimming, Binding, etc., are Novel and Practical, and have been invented and adjusted especially for this Machine.

New designs of the Unique, Useful, and Popular Folding Tops and Cabinet Cases, peculiar to the Machines manufactured by this Company, have been prepared for enclosing the new Machine.

A faint idea, however, can at best be conveyed through the medium of a (necessarily) limited advertisement; and we therefore urge every person in quest of a Sewing Machine, by all means to examine and test, if they can possibly do so, all the leading rival Machines before making a purchase. A selection can then be made understandingly. Branches or agencies for supplying the "Singer" Machines will be found in nearly every city and town throughout the civilized world, where Machines will be cheerfully exhibited, and any information promptly furnished. MIDDLETON'S

WONDERFUL PAIN CURE

A sure remedy for Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Lumbago, Growing Pains, Sprains, Bruises, Stiffnes, of the Joints and all similar diseases.

This wonderful remedy is composed entirely of vegetable ingredients. There are no injurious substances used in its manufacture.

For assurance of its excellent properties, read the following certificates:

BEDFORD, May 8, 1869.

I take great pleasure in giving my testimony to the value of "Middleton's Wonderful Pain Cure." I have been a martyr to Rheumatism. For two months previous to Feb. 25th, last, I was suffering intensely with pain so severe, that during all that time I had not one night of comfortable sleep. I could not put my hands to my face, could not comb my own hair, nor feed myself; but after having the Pain Cure applied once, I found relief enough to give me comfortable sleep, and with its steady use, I continued to get better, and now at the end of ten weeks from its first application, I have comparatively free use of my hands, sleep well and can attend to business. It has done me more good than all other medicines I have ever used put together, and I cheerfully give this certificate of its value.

ELI M. FISHER.

BEDFORD, April 14, 1869.

Mr. W. W. Middleton,

This is to certify that I was taken with Rheumatism, in my right shoulder, on the evening of the 8th inst., so that I was unable to raise my hand to my face. I got some of your Pain Cure and applied it twice, and was entirely relieved. I would recommend to every one who suffers with Rheumatism to give it a trial and be cured.

Yours &c., A. F. MILLER.

BEDFORD, May 17, 1869.

Mr. Middleton,

DEAR SIR:—I have used several bottles of your medicine in my family, and find it to be all you claim for it. Yours, truly,

JOHN HAFER.

BEDFORD, May 13, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used "Middleton's Pain Cure," for Rheumatism, and was very much benefited by it. JOHN HARRIS.

BEDFORD, May 18, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used Middleton's Liniment, for the Rheumatism which I had in my right shoulder so bad that I could not get my hand to my head without great pain, and after a few applications was entirely relieved.

L. F. DART.

BEDFORD, May 1, 1869.

Mr Middleton,

Dear Sir:—Mrs. Bowser was in much suffering for some four weeks with Rheumatism, and got some of your Pain Cure, and the first night I applied it it eased the pain; and after keeping on using it for two weeks, she was restored to health. I feel it to be my duty, as it is a pleasure, to write this recommendation for the benefit of others. JACOB BOWSER.

BEDFORD, May 16. 1869.

Mr W. W. Middleton:

Sir—I procured a bottle of your Liniment for Rheumatism, and it gives me great pleasure in saying that after using it for two days, my rheumatism was completely relieved. My sister was suffering, at the same time, with Inflamatory Rheumatism in her right hand and wrist—after using it for several days she was relieved. I consider it the best remedy I ever heard of.

JOHN KEEFE.

BEDFORD, May 24, 1869.

This is to certify that I have used one bottle of Middleton's Liniment, for Rheumatism, and think it a good cure, and would recommend it to all persons that are afflicted with the above disease.

AUGUSTUS CARVER.

BEDFORD, May 26, 1869.

Mr. Middleton:

Sir—I procured one bottle of your medicine and used one-half of it for Rheumatism, which effected a permanent cure up to this time. I cannot hesitate in saying that it is the best remedy I ever used. A. B. CARN.

This excellent PAIN CURE is prepared only by W. W. MIDDLETON, Bedford, Pa., to whom all orders for the medicine should be addressed.

CELEBRATED

BITTER CORDIAL.

This medical preparation is now offered to the public as a reliable substitute for the many worthless compounds which now flood the market. It is purely vegetable, composed of various herbs, gathered from the great storehouse of nature, and selected with the utmost care. It is not recommended as a CURE ALL, but by its direct and salutary influence upon the Heart, Liver, Kidneys, Lungs, Stomach and Bowels, it acts both as a preventive and cure for many of the diseases to which those organs are subject. It is a reliable Family Medicine, and can be taken by either infant or adult with the same beneficial results It is a certain, prompt and speedy remedy for DIARRHŒA, DYSENTERY, BOWEL COMPLAINT, DYSPEPSIA, LOWNESS OF SPIRITS, FAINTINGS, SICK-HEADACHE, &c. For Chills and Fevers of all kinds, it is far better and safer than quinine, without any of its pernicious effects. It creates an appetite, proves a powerful digester of food, and will counteract the effects of liquor in a few minutes.

AYER'S

HAIR VIGOR,

FOR THE RENOVATION OF THE HAIR.

THE GREAT DESIDERATUM OF THE AGE.

A dressing which is at once agreeable, healthy, and effectual for preserving the hair. Faded or gray hair is soon restored to its original color and the gloss and freshness of youth. Thin hair is thickened, falling hair checked, and baldness often, though not always, cured by its use. Nothing can restore the hair where the follicles are destroyed, or the glands atrophied and decayed. But such as remain can be saved for usefulness by this application. Instead of fouling the hair with a pasty sediment, it will keep it clean and vigorous. Its occasional use will prevent the hair from turning gray or falling off, and consequently prevent baldness. Free from those deleterious substances which make some preparations dangerous and injurious to the hair, the Vigor can only benefit but not harm it. If wanted merely for a nothing else can be found so desirable. Containing neither oil nor dye, it does not soil white cambric, and yet lasts longer on the hair, giving it a rich glossy lustre and a grateful perfume.

HAIR DRESSING,

AYER'S CATHARTIC PILLS,

For all the purposes of a Laxative Medicine.

Perhaps no one Medicine is so universally required by everybody as a cathartic, nor was ever any before so universally adopted into use, in every country and among all classes, as this mild but efficient purgative Pill. The obvious reason is, that it is a more reliable and far more effectual remedy than any other. Those who have tried it, know that it cured them; those who have not, know that it cures their neighbors and friends, and all know that what it does once it does always—that it never fails through any fault or neglect of its composition We have thousands upon thousands of certificates of their remarkable cures of the following complaints, but such cures are known in every neighborhood, and we need not publish them. Adapted to all ages and conditions in all climates; containing neither calomel or any deleterious drug, they may be taken with safety by anybody. Their sugar coating preserves them ever fresh and makes them pleasant to take, while being purely vegetable no harm can arise from their use in any quantity.

They operate by their powerful influence on the internal viscera to purify the blood and stimulate it into healthy action—remove the obstructions of the stomach, bowels, liver, and other organs of the body, restoring their irregular action to health, and by correcting, wherever they exist, such derangements as are the first origin of disease.

Minute directions are given in the wrapper on the box, for the following complaints, which these Pills rapidly cure:—

For DYSPEPSIA or INDIGESTION, LISTLESSNESS, LANGUOR and LOSS of Appetite, they should be taken moderately to stimulate the stomach and restore its healthy tone and action.

For LIVER COMPLAINT and its various symptoms, BILLIOUS HEADACHE, SICK HEADACHE, JAUNDICE or Green SICKNESS, Bilious Colic and Bilious Fevers, they should be judiciously taken for each case, to correct the diseased action or remove the obstructions which cause them.

For DYSENTERY or DIARRHŒA, but one mild dose is generally required.

For RHEUMATISM, GOUT, GRAVEL, PALPITATION OF THE HEART, PAIN IN THE SIDE, BACK and LOINS, they should be continuously taken, as required, to change the diseased action of the system. With such change those complaints disappear.

For DROPSY and DROPSICAL SWELLINGS they should be taken in large and frequent doses to produce the effect of a drastic purge.

For SUPPRESSION a large dose should be taken as it produces the desired effect by sympathy.

As a DINNER PILL, take one or two pills to promote digestion and relieve the stomach.

An occasional dose stimulates the stomach and bowels into healthy action, restores the appetite, and invigorates the system. Hence it is often advantageous where no serious derangement exists. One who feels tolerably well, often finds that a dose of these PILLS makes him feel decidedly better, from their cleansing and renovating effect on the digestive apparatus.

MUSICAL DOINGS.—Since Mr. Waters gave up publishing sheet music, he has devoted his whole capital and attention to the manufacture and sale of Pianos and Melodeons. He has just issued a catalogue of his new instruments, giving a new scale of prices, which shows a marked reduction from former rates, and his Pianos have recently been awarded the First Premium at several Fairs. Many people of the present day, who are attracted, if not confused, with the flaming adcertisements of rival piano houses, probably overlook the modest manufacturer like Mr. Waters; but we happen to know that his instruments earned him a good reputation long before Expositions and "honors" connected therewith were ever thought of; indeed, we have one of Mr. Waters' Pianofortes now in our residence (where it has stood for many years,) of which any manufacturer in the world might well be proud. We have always been delighted with it as a sweet-toned and powerful instrument, and there is no doubt of its durability; more than this, some of the best amateur players in the city, as well as several celebrated pianists, have performed on the same piano, and all pronounce it a superior and first-class instrument. Stronger endorsement we could not give.—Home Journal. jan15,'69.

AYER'S SARSAPARILLA,

FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.

The reputation this excellent medicine enjoys, is derived from its cures, many of which are truly marvellous. Inveterate cases of Scrofulous disease, where the system seemed saturated with corruption, have been purified and cured by it. Scrofulous affections and disorders, which were aggravated by the scrofulous contamination until they were painfully afflicting, have been radically cured in such great numbers in almost every section of the country, that the public scarcely need to be informed of its virtues or uses.

Scrofulous poison is one of the most destructive enemies of our race. Often, this unseen and unfelt tenant of the organism undermines the constitution, and invites the attack of enfeebling or fatal diseases, without exciting a suspicion of its presence. Again, it seems to breed infection throughout the body, and then, on some favorable occasion, rapidly develops into one or other of its hideous forms, either on the surface or among the vitals. In the latter, tubercles may be suddenly deposited in the lungs or heart, or tumors formed in the liver, or it shows its presence by eruptions on the skin, or foul ulcerations on some part of the body. Hence the occasional use of a bottle of this Sarsaparilla is advisable, even when no active symptoms of disease appear. Persons afflicted with the following complaints generally find immediate relief, and, at length, cure, by the use of this Sarsaparilla: St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Sore Eyes, Sore Ears, and other eruptions or visible forms of Scrofulous disease. Also in the more concealed forms, as Dyspepsia, Dropsy, Heart Disease, Fits, Epilepsy, Neuralgia, and the various Ulcerous affections of the muscular and nervous systems.

Syphilis or Venereal and Mercurial Diseases are cured by it, though a long time is required for subduing these obstinate maladies by any medicine. But long continued use of this medicine will cure the complaint. Leucorrhœa or Whites, Uterine Ulcerations and Female Diseases, are commonly soon relieved and ultimately cured by its purifying and invigorating effect. Minute Directions for each case are found in our Almanac, supplied gratis. Rheumatism and Gout, when caused by accumulations of extraneous matters in the blood, yield quickly to it, as also Liver Complaints, Torpidity, Congestion or Inflammation of the Liver, and Jaundice, when arising, as they often do, from the rankling poisons in the blood. This SARSAPARILLA is a great restorer for the strength and vigor of the system. Those who are Languid and Listless, Despondent, Sleepless, and troubled with Nervous Apprehensions or Fears, or any of the affections symptomatic of Weakness, will find immediate relief and convincing evidence of its restorative power upon trial.
